Terrorism. In his remarks, the President announced that 14 senior members of al Qaeda have been moved from classified locations, where they were being held and questioned by the CIA, to DOD custody where they can be brought to justice for their crimes.

-- Interrogations of these individuals have yielded vital intelligence we have shared with our allies, and stopped numerous plots.

-- Two Saudi nationals were among those transferred: Mustafa Ahmad al-Hawsawi and `Abd al-Rahim al-Nashiri. In addition, a Palestinian who was raised in Saudi Arabia, Zayn al `Abidin Abu Zubaydah; and a Yemeni who was born and raised in Saudi Arabia, Walid Bin `Attash, were also transferred.

-- The ICRC has been notified and will have access to them. No detainees remain in CIA custody.

-- At Guantanamo, these individuals will receive the same standard of treatment as all other detainees in Guantanamo.

-- These detainees will appear before a combatant status review tribunal to confirm that they are properly held as enemy combatants in accordance with the same standards that govern all other DOD detainees at Guantanamo.

-- These detainees will have access to counsel, will be afforded the opportunity to worship, and will be able to write and receive mail from their families and friends, to the same extent as other detainees in DOD custody.

-- All requests by foreign officials to meet with these detainees will be considered using the existing DOD policy on foreign government access to GTMO detainees.
